DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1 and 4-8 are objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 1, line 8, "each grasping end portions" should read --each grasped end portion--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 and 4-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the two profile sheet piles" in lines 5-6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1 and 4-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Muller (US Patent 3,100,382) or Taylor (US Patent 3,279,195).

Muller discloses a press-in apparatus for a Z profile sheet pile, the apparatus comprising a press-in section 1 for grasping a Z profile sheet 8a having clutches at both ends, wherein the press-in section comprises a grasping mechanism 4a, 4b for grasping two Z profile sheet piles individually to press in, and pressing in simultaneously the two Z profile sheet piles, see column 1, lines 27-33 and column 2, lines 12-32. Likewise Taylor discloses a press-in apparatus for Z profile sheet pile (fig. 8) and a press-in method for pressing a Z profile sheet pile wherein the apparatus comprises a press-in section 11 for grasping a Z profile sheet pile having clutches at both ends, the press-in section comprising a grasping mechanism 14 for grasping two Z profile sheets individually and pressing-in simultaneously the two Z profile sheet piles joined to each other at their clutches, see column 1, lines 60-71 and column 3, lines 61-75. Muller and Taylor disclose the Z profile sheet piles being grasped on opposite sides of the clutches in the middle section of each Z profile sheet pile and not at an end section of each Z profile sheet pile. However it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made that grasping each Z profile sheet pile at its end section is an obvious matter of design choice wherein no stated problem is solved or unexpected results obtained in grasping the Z profile sheet piles at their end sections versus grasping them at their middle sections as taught by Muller and Taylor, as long as the piles are effectively pressed in.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 4-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Furthermore in response to Applicant's argument that Taylor does not disclose pressing two sheet piles simultaneously, the examiner respectfully disagrees. As outlined in the above rejections, Taylor discloses driving sheet piles in a group of at least two (col. 1, lines 6062).

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
